

SO ORDERED:

Since no further action by the Court is necessary at this time, Plaintiffs' motion for a conference, (Docket No. 100), is denied without prejudice with leave to renew at a later date if necessary.

Re: Jose Alberto Rios Lopez et al. v. Blue WP, Inc. et al.
Case No. 7:18-cv-11360 (VB)

Dear Judge McCarthy:

This law firm represents the defendants in the above action. We submit this Joint letter on behalf of all parties to provide the Court with a status update. Last week, the defendants executed confessions of judgment and an email copy was provided to plaintiffs' counsel. We are obtaining the originals of these confessions which will be delivered to plaintiffs' counsel's office no later than Monday, August 10th. We thank the Court for its continuing assistance in this matter. At this time, no further action is needed by the Court.

Notwithstanding, if plaintiffs' counsel does not receive the signed executed confessions of judgment by Monday, August 10, they will immediately notify the court and request a conference to discuss defendants' breach of the settlement agreement and how to proceed.

Respectfully Submitted,

David Schrader
